Flanders Nature Center & Land Trust

Finding Cubby Contest

WOODBURY- Flanders Nature Center & Land Trust invites you to take a hike and get outside to enjoy the wonderful fall foliage. During the week of October 19th through the 25th, while on your hike at the Van Vleck Farm Sanctuary on Flanders Road in Woodbury, you can join the search for "Cubby," a stuffed bear that is hidden on one of our trails. If you are the first to e-mail his picture with your phone or digital camera to flanders@flandersnaturecenter.org or call in at 203-263-3711 ext.10 with the secret word, you will win some of Flanders own Maple Syrup, a Flanders T-shirt and a National Audubon Society Field Guide to New England.

As you enjoy and discover the natural beauty on your hike, think about how you can help Flanders persist in preserving and managing open space for future generations.

Flanders Nature Center & Land Trust is a nonprofit organization that focuses on environmental education, and on the acquisition, conservation, and stewardship of open space. Through its land trust initiatives, Flanders actively works to protect important natural sites and the area's landscape character and quality of life. The Flanders Land Trust manages more than 1900 acres of preserved land in Woodbury and neighboring towns. Educational programs for children and adults are offered at the Van Vleck Farm Sanctuary, Flanders' main campus in Woodbury. Trails at its major nature preserves are open to the public at no charge from dawn to dusk.

Flanders Welcome Center is located at the corner of Church Hill and Flanders Roads, three miles north of Route 6 in Woodbury. For more information, call 203-263-3711.

See if you can find Cubby while hiking the trails at the Van Vleck Farm Sanctuary.
