Children's Veterans Day Vacation Program at Flanders

WOODBURY - Flanders Nature Center & Land Trust is offering a Veterans Day vacation adventure on Tuesday, November 11.

There will be one class from 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM for preschoolers and another class from 1 – 4 PM for children grades K - 5.

Our topic for Tuesday will be, "Native Ways, It's Time to be Thankful!"

Children will go on a hike to the beaver lodge and learn about one of nature's greatest engineers. There will be traditional stories relating to Native Americans and sharing and a craft to bring home that is focused on the Native Harvest. In addition children will visit with our resident reptiles.

A wonderful complement to a child's learning, this class will be an exciting outdoor adventure which will allow young people the opportunity to explore the natural world and help foster an understanding and connection with the environment.

Program fee per person is $15 for members; $20 for nonmembers and registration and pre-payment are required. Those interested are asked to call 203-263-3711 ext. 10.
